How to interpret these results

Your results will show as either:

- Green for a required score
- Yellow for a minimum score that you can only use for test combining
- Red for below our minimum score that you cannot use for test combining

To combine your tests you must have at least one green score in each section.

If you have a red score in any section, you cannot combine that test.

If you narrowly miss the required test score and have exhausted test combining options, you may be able to use supporting information from your employer as supplementary evidence of clinical competence in English in that area. You can read more about this here.
